ATTACHMENT TO
DISCLOSURE OF COMPENSATION OF ATTORNEY FOR DEBTOR(S)

Greene & Markley, P.C. ("G&M") was engaged by the debtor on or about April 28, 2016, for the purposes of acting as its attorneys in connection with matters relating to the winding up of its affairs through an orderly liquidation of its assets. G&M's agreement with the debtor does not commit it to perform other kinds of legal services. The engagement letter specifically excludes from the scope of the engagement the representation of the debtor in litigation matters or in a bankruptcy case concerning it. When the involuntary petition was filed on October 10, 2016, G&M's engagement was still ongoing.

At the request of the debtor's Chief Restructuring Officer, Edward C. Hostmann (the "CRO"), made after the court entered the order for relief against the debtor [Doc 11], G&M agreed, on the condition that it be paid for its services, that it would assist the CRO in the preparation and filing of the creditors' matrix, the bankruptcy schedules, the statement of financial affairs and other basic case filings that the CRO, as the debtor's designated representative, is required to file in this chapter 7 case and that it would attend the §341 meeting of creditors. G&M's compensation for its legal services will be based on its standard hourly rates for the professionals who provide the services. The source of the compensation to G&M will be the cash collateral and proceeds of protective advances made available to the CRO by Umpqua Bank, to the extent permitted under the court's Oct. 12 Order Granting Involuntary Petition and Related Relief [Doc 10].
